Integricity's monthly newsletter offering goodies, special offers, tips and tricks, useful articles and latest news about us and our services.

Welcome message from Sim Han How Technical Support Executive Integricity Technology

It's that time of the year again where shopping malls are adorned with Christmas trees and houses are filled with laughter! A time to celebrate and to reflect on the past year. What a journey it has been for some! Truthfully, I am still shocked by how fast time flies. I remember last year's Christmas like it was yesterday. A lot has happened this past year, some a cause for celebration while others a cause for concern.

A thought looming on everyone's mind I'm sure is the current world economic situation and the uncertainty of the future ahead. My only plea is that we appreciate the things that we already have in our lives especially during this holiday season - family, friends, the clothes on our backs and the roof over our heads. Cliché I know but trust me, this is better than any financial advice that I have to offer considering that I should start a "Help me I am broke, again!" Facebook group.

But I digress, so what's been going on at Integricity during this festive season? For starters we have just finished our yearly Mortal and Guardian Angel game where each person would assume the role of a Mortal and a Guardian Angel. Each person would then randomly pick a name to be his/her Mortal and will then anonymously pamper their Mortal for the next three weeks.

Our office walls are also adorned with colourful bits of encouragement notes for others.
